Winter Lecture Tour February 7-21, 2012

Rabbi Dr. Eliezer Shore's lectures are of outstanding content, most original and fascinating. His style of presentation is unique, and his pleasant and warm personality adds a lot to the classroom atmosphere. Our students enjoy his lectures immensely, and have always asked that he return to teach further classes.

You were a big hit with the students! Your wonderful stories, beautiful insights on Jewish texts and values, and highlights of your amazing Jewish journey were so engaging, fascinating, and inspiring. Moreover, your warm, down-to-earth manner, sense of humor, and genuineness made a great impression on the students.

I've been wanting to take this class for ten years – this was the best place to do it, and this was the best way I could have learned. Thanks!

Rabbi Dr. Eliezer Shore is a teacher of Jewish thought and spirituality. He has studied with some of the great Kabbalists and Hasidic Masters of today, yet is university trained, with a background in comparative religion. His lectures convey the power and profundity of the Jewish mystical tradition, at the same time as they look for the deeper meaning in contemporary culture, philosophy, sociology, environmentalism and the media. He is a popular teacher at the Rothberg International School of Hebrew University, as well as at various colleges, yeshivot, and seminaries around Jerusalem.

Rabbi Shore's lectures are dynamic and engaging, as he seeks to awaken the listeners to their own spirituality and desire for ultimate meaning.
